Down Broadway, an interactive Rhythm and Blues play, takes audiences on a tantalizing excursion through time! Relive an aging street musician's quest to revive the spirit of music and save live music from extinction. Travel down the streets of San Francisco from the Roaring 20's to the sounds of today! Young or old, you'll snap your fingers, dance in your seat and sing along!

Hosted by Pure Ecstasy's Johnny 'T' and Olaf Pollard

Early reservations for this fabulous evening are encouraged!
